Wants Her Child.

A petition for a writ of habeas corpus was filed by Mr. T. H. Fitnam for Mary L. Hendricks, directed to W. T. Hendricks today for the production of their child, Randolph Hendricks, and delivery to her, and Justice Hagner directed the writ to issue returnable on the 18th. The petition states she was married February 8, 1889, her maiden name being Dant, have three chil-dren, Randolph, the eldest, and states he did fairly well till August, 1893, when he induced his brother Eric to marry and bring to his home one Nellie DuPlenty, and he (Eric) did so; that she several times de-tected her husband and Nellie embracing each other, and told him Nellie would have to leave, and she repeats in the bill much of the testimony which was recently given in the Police Court in the trial of Hendricks, when he was fined for assaulting

Now They Have a Choir.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Ninth Street Christian Church, Rev. E. B. Bagby, pastor, has added a new feature to its meetings. President J. W. Pickett and D. C. Arnold, the chorister, have organized a Christian Endeavor choir, composed of the oldest members of the junior society and the youngest of the seniors—about thirty-five in number. The choir made its first appearance last Sunday evening. It is a novel feature, and was evidently thoroughly appreciated. The 9th street society is the largest in the District, numbering 112 active, eight associate and ten honorary members, and additions are being made at every meeting.

Playing Leap Frog.

The Coming Meeting of the Congress of American Physicians and Surgeons. The great gathering of doctors constituting the membership of the Congress of will continue through June 1. As stated in Saturday's Star, members of the executive committee were in conference at the Shoreham on Saturday with the members of the ments made thus far by the local committee were explained by the chairman, Dr. S. S. Adams. As is well known, the congress is the different specialties. Sessions of the congress will be held in Metzerott's Hall, while the societies will meet in halls and rooms which will be provided.

The principal social affair of the congres will be a dinner to be given at the Arlington on the evening of May 30. There will be 500 covers laid. This will take the place of the dinners which the individual societies have been accustomed to give.

A number of foreign physicians and the presidents of all the state medical societies have been invited to Washington as the guests of the congress, and many of them have already signified their intention of being present. The opening session of the congress will take place on the afternoon of Tuesday, May 29, when there will be a discussion by the Anatomical Society of a paper on "Morchology as a Factor in the Study of Disease, Harrison Allen of Philadelphia.

The next session, on the afternoon of Wednesday, will be devoted to the Climatological Association, and papers will be read on "Bacteriology," by D. Frank Abbott of New York, and "Diseases Produced by Sewer Gas," by Dr. A. Jacobi of New York. From 3:30 to 5 o'clock the Dermatological Association will discuss "The Distribution Association will discuss "The Distribution and Control of Leprosy in the United States." Addresses will be made on "Distribution," by Dr. J. N. Hyde of Chicago; on "Diagnostic Features," by Dr. P. A. Morrow of New York, and on "Prophylaxis and Treatment," by Dr. J. C. White of Boston. This discussion will be participated in by Drs. William A. Hardaway of St. Louis, James E. Graham of Toronto, Canada; G. H. Fox of New York, Gen. Wyman of this city and Joseph D. Bryant of New York. On Thursday afternoon the Genito-Urinary Association will listen to a paper on "Nephritis in Its Surgical Aspect," by Dr. E. L. Keyes of New York, which will be discussed by Drs. George Chismore of San Francisco, L. B. Bangs of New York, Francis S. Wat-son of Boston and W. N. Wishard of Indian-apolis. From 3:30 to 5 o'clock the Gyneco-logical Association will hear Dr. Goodell of Philadelphia discuss the paper on "The Con-servative Surgery of the Female Pelvic Organs," by Dr. W. M. Polk of New York. The evening will be devoted to addresses by the president and the chairman of the local committee on arrangements, and a receplogical Association, and "Intranasal Surdiscussion by the Neurological Association of "The Influence of Infectious Processes on the Nervous System," which will be participated in by Drs. J. J. Putnam of Boston, E. C. Seguin of New York and Charles K. Mills and F. X. Derous, both of Philadel-

AMUSEMENTS.

Albaugh's.-There was a tent full of people and small boys crowding under the canvas to see "The Country Circus" at Albaugh's last night, and, as far as could be American Physicians and Surgeons, which judged, everybody was satisfied. This is was held in this city three years ago, is to not the first time "The Country Circus" has be repeated here on May 29. The sessions pitched its tent in Washington, but what was here last time and what is here now are quite different, inasmuch as the megathinian aggregation of any finest show on earth is subject to change. In the cast of local committee. The details of the arrange- the play this year are Mr. Walter Gale, the artistic ring master; Mr. Chas. Willard, Mr. Frank Bell, Mr. A. V. Gibson, Miss Gonzales, Mrs. S. K. Chester and Miss Sothern; composed of fourteen societies representing in the show ring are Mile. Venus, a dancing bareback rider; the DeVere family of tumblers, Senor Scafar and his goats, Mr. Adams, emperor of the stilts; Mile. Rosina, a slack-rope performer of exceeding grace Joseph Darby, the champion jumper, and most remarkable, too; Herminia, who walks around the globe, and Professor Wood and his ponies. Truly this is a feast of circus, and a flow of enjoyment, and the big crowd had as much fun as if they were under a real canvas, and the peanut and the ice-cold lemonade flourished as the green bay tree. The performances will be given every evening of the week, with matilees on Wednesday and Saturday. National.—Washington theater-goers had their first presentation to Scandinavian dia-lect last night at the National in Mr. Gus Heege's play, "Yon Yonson," which evidently has put off visiting the capital until the last, as naturally it is the best. It is a peculiar dialect, too, but one which adapts itself readily, and, while in no wise melliftuous and beautiful, it is quite capable of giving a funnier turn to humor, and a tenderer turn to pathos. In the character of Yon, Mr. Heege finds no difficulty in capturing an audience, and it never gets away from him. He is, of course, the good angel of the play, and after many incidents by flood and field, he winds it up in the dis-comfiture of all the bad and the triumph of all the good, and everything is lovely. The supporting cast is mixed. That is to say, some of it is very good, and some of it is plain, every day bad. A character which stands next to Mr. Heege is Miss Connolly's Mrs. Laughlin, the tavern lady, who does some singing and dancing in addition to some very healthy acting, which carries the house unanimously. Two pretty char-acters are Miss Victory Bateman and Miss Merri Osborne, as Grace Jennings and Jen-nie Morris. In the matter of scenery the second act is noteworthy, being a very realistic production of a dam and log-jam on a Minnesota river in winter. The breaking of the jam is a strong bit of realism. Another catchy feature is the singing of the lumbermen's quartet in the picturesque garb of the northwest saw-log artist.

Academy of Music.—"A Temperance Town" as seen at the Academy of Music for the first time in this city last night might be properly described as a funny attempt to be serious. The seriousness consists in an effort to show that prohibition too freely indulged in may become positively offensive, not only to good taste, but to good morals. If, in his desire to make tion by President Cleveland.

The congress will conclude its sessions on the stage the exponent of ideas affecting Friday, June 1. The early portion of the afternoon will be occupied by the Baryno- with adverse criticism he should not feel with adverse criticism he should not feel uncomfortable. The congress will conclude with a on the stage perform the acts of philanthropy and express the sentiments that thrill the bosom of the gallery god, while the men of standing in the community, who are cleanly in their personal habits and who provide for their families, do all the deeds of villainy that keep the plot moving. The absurdity is manifest—so manifest that even the ardent advocate of prohibition could find it in his heart to laugh at the jokes and ignore the antag onism to his cause, because it is so weak and illogical. But the display of bad taste is unquestionable and unforgiveable. This is one of the few productions of recent times which give tangible ground for the old-fashioned bigot who claims that the playhouse is the school of immorality to ing the career of this worthy charity. It is stand on. No author holding a position of thought the maximum will not be reached till next week, as the advertising molder of sentiment could afford to place which the soup dispensary has had has been incomplete. It is becoming known around town, and its beneficiaries are coming from all sections of the city. At first making a humorous point are both con-its charity was dispensed mainly among spicuously and enjoyably present in "A the poor of the northern end of lown but Temperance Town." An audience that last night. It was the initial performance of the play in Washington, and proved one of the successes of the season. The story is one of metropolitan life, and the pictures of New York were true and realistic. This was especially so in the first and third acts. In the first act there is an excellent repre-sentation of New York harbor with the statue of Liberty, while the third act shows Rutger's slip on East river during a snow storm. The supporting company is good, and work in harmony. Again tonight. Kernan's Lyceum Theater.—Kernan's was crowded last night to witness C. H. Willilams' big show. Murray interested a large and appreciative audience at Grace M. E. Church last night with his entertaining lecture on the world's fair, which was handsomely illustrated with 150 stereopticon views. Mr. Murray has attained quite a reputation in Washington for his profusely illustrated lectures on the Holy Land and other interesting subjects, and the audience last night listened with great satisfaction to his graphic descripparts tonight will equal the work presented at that time, but they will do their best, and no doubt give a creditable performance.

Bill Nye's Reading.—The third event of the series of "C. C." lectures at Metzerott Hall came last evening with a rush. Bill Nye and his namesake by the name of Smith occupied the stage for nearly three hours with wit and poetry and story. They had a full house before them and they used it as audiences are not often used in Wash-I frequently read in your able paper very humane articles in regard to cruelty to the laugh and to listen, and then to laugh some more, and to listen without a yawn or a wink or a complaint from 8 o'clock until Bill Nye said good night, Mr. Smith read some clever dialect bits that were very good. Scotch seemed to fit his tongue with natural grace and ease, and he made tears come to some eyes with his "Bairnes, Cuddle Doon." It was the same Nye who told his inimitable tales and played havoc with the adjectives of the English language. Perhaps he was a bit fatter and balder than ever, but it was the same exuberant ropical vocabulary that was displayed, and the same queer juts and corners of speech that were presented. FOR MUTUAL HELP.

Prevent the Grip

Dr. Cyrus Edson of the New York Board of Health says that to prevent the Grip you should avoid exposure in inclement weather and keep your strength up, your blood in good condition and your digestive crgans in regular action. The tonic and alterative effects of Hood's Sarsaparilla so happily meet the last three conditions that with the protection given by this medicine you need not fear the Grip.

BREAKFAST—SUPPER.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-scleeted Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a deficately flavored beverage, which may save us many beavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are flouting around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.
